DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

This house is similar to 2 E. Preston Street (and is probably attached to it internally as there is no 2nd door for the upper floors) in materials and fenestration for the shopfront and former 1st floor. (The right window on the 1st floor has 3 panes instead of one).

On the second floor there is a 1/1 window with flat stone arch to the left, and a window similar to, but narrower than the second floor window of 2 Preston Street to the right.

A shed roofed dormer with 3 single pane, single hung windows, each capped by a 9 paned transom is centered on the steep mansard.
